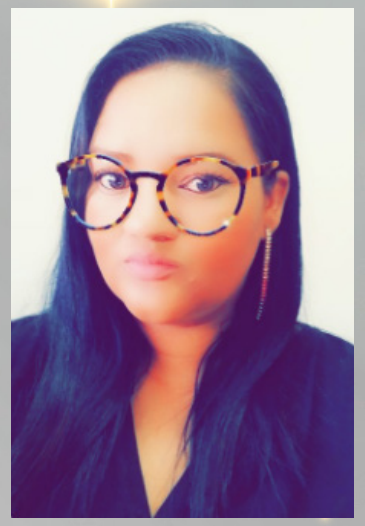
Who holds the key to my heart, is a fictional story, something to read that is based on real-life experiences but has some fictitious edits to it. This book is a work of fabrication, characters' names, places, and incidents have been changed to protect these people and the story is really interesting and it picks up drama in every chapter.

Remember to always be kind.

Thank you.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR



Littez Koeries, author of Who holds the key to my heart?

Littez was born in the South of Johannesburg in a small community called Ennerdale. Growing up, she loved hockey and school, her favorite subject was English, and this gave her an early exposure to reading and telling stories. She considers her faith and family the most important to her. She is a qualified Accountant and Human Resource Manager, who simply loves reading and writing fiction stories based on real-life experiences. The book who holds the key to my heart. Is her first attempt and it is very relatable to young adults and a senior audience.

She has had her heart broken so many times, each time she thought she was in love (as most teens do). She is now happily married and still loves telling her story. Please keep in mind that a lot of the information is made up and fabricated and a product of the author's imagination, any resemblance to actual people, places, and events is entirely coincidental.
